

Trials and Transitions

From the Abyssinian
Migration to the Year of Grief

The Abyssinian Migrations (5th Year of Prophethood)

- The First Hijrah: In Rajab of the 5th year, 16 Muslims (12 men, 4 women) migrated to Abyssinia to escape escalating torture. The Prophet ﷺ recommended this destination due to the justice of the Christian King, the Negus (Ashamah).
- The Second Migration: A larger group of 83 men and 18–19 women sought refuge across the Red Sea due to renewed Quraish hostility.
- The Diplomatic Defense: Ja'far bin Abi Talib defined Islam as a moral revolution—transitioning from Jahiliyyah to the Light of truth and justice.
- Theological Commonality: Upon hearing Surat Maryam, the Negus wept and affirmed that the Quran and the Gospel emanate from the same divine source.

Turning Points – The Conversions of Hamzah and Umar (R.A)

- Hamzah's Valor: After Abu Jahl insulted the Prophet ﷺ, Hamzah embraced Islam, becoming a strong protector of the Muslim community.
- The Prophet's Du'a: 'O Allah, strengthen Islam with the one who is more beloved to You of these two men: 'Umar bin Al-Khattab or Abu Jahl.'
- Umar's Transformation: After reading Surat Ta-Ha, his heart softened. His conversion marked open proclamation of Islam at the Ka'bah.

The General Boycott and Social Isolation (7th–10th Year)

- The Decree of Defiance: Quraish formed a written pact to boycott Banu Hashim and Banu Al-Muttalib.
- Life in Ash-Sh‘ib: Muslims endured extreme famine for three years, surviving on minimal provisions.
- The Miracle of the Document: The decree was consumed by termites except for the words 'In Your Name, O Allah,' leading to the boycott's end.

'Amul Huzn (The Year of Grief) – 10th Year of Prophethood

- Death of Abu Talib: The Prophet ﷺ lost his tribal protection and was exposed to direct danger.
- Passing of Khadijah (R.A): The first believer and emotional pillar of support passed away.
- Journey to Ta'if: The Prophet ﷺ was rejected and stoned, yet He ﷺ responded with patience and prayer.
- Spiritual Uplift: These hardships preceded the Isra' & Mi'raj, signaling divine consolation after earthly trials.
